Presidents Corner

SOS was a huge success despite the scare of another hurricane skirting by our coast. The weather turned out to be fantastic in every aspect. Speaking of hurricanes, our heart goes out to all affected by the direct hit on Georgia and Florida, along with all the others that have had floods and devastation caused by mother nature. You could see a few less people the first Friday, but by Saturday, it was full steam ahead. Our Ice Tea and White Russian Party turned out well. We were able to satisfy all of our members and with our outreach, acquired a couple new members. We now have our new SOS cards for sale if you are interested since Fall Migration is the last event for the 2017 card. Mid-Winter is not that far away, so these cards could be an excellent Christmas gift. Again this year, Linda and I along with Susan Martin will have the cards, so just check with one of us to get your card. Thanks for all the support you have given in the past.

Our next big event will be the DJ Marathon at the Blue Coyote on October 14, 2017. As most of you know, this will be an American Cancer Society fundraiser. We will be asking for a $5 donation as you enter the building. Palmetto Shag Club will be furnishing the main entrée, the sides, and the dessert, so come out and help support by buying Chinese Auction tickets and 50/50 tickets. Everyone is a vital part of this club. I hope you join us, support us, and participate with us to make this a great event. We will have our ABSCDJ's rotating playing the music for about 30 minute segments.

Upcoming events are, the Thankmus Party on December 2, 2017 where we will vote on new Club Officers and listen to the best shag music by Bill Farmer and then the New Year's Eve Party on December 31, 2017 with DJ Buck Crumpton. It is only $35 for members. We have a great Club with fun parties, I hope you take advantage of all the hard work done by your fellow club volunteers and get your name on that list to help in the future. It is rewarding and a great way to meet new friends.

Keep on Shagging
