Presidents Corner

We have had a great year so far and we fully expect it to continue on. Membership has grown and interest in our parties has increased. Not only has interest in our club increased, but we have done a great job visiting nearby venues to support them also. The planned bus trip to Lynn's on July 29 is a prime example of increased interest. The signup sheet was first announced and displayed at the Appreciation Party, at which time only a few spaces were left available and they filled by the next week-end. Interest like this is an example of the Club Pride we have discussed before.

I hope you all had an opportunity to party with us at Southern Comfort. It was a great party and I can't say enough about the venue, decorations, food, DJ's, working committees, donated gifts for Chinese Auction, and most of all the hospitality you all showed to our guests. People have a tendency to remember the party that treated them like family. The pool party was a hit with the 90 degree weather we had on Saturday, not to mention the test tube shooters and the hotel complimentary bar dispensing fun by the sip. We have too many club members to mention by name that helped with Southern Comfort, but you all were appreciated. We had over sixty members helping with all aspects of this party, with some doing double and triple duty. A special thanks to Southern Comfort co-chairs Linda Fanning and Susan Martin, Decoration chair Brenda Dixon, Pool Party by Brenda Dixon and assisted by Janice Prather, Floor committee lead by Troy Dixon and Cecil Martin, Registration Susan Martin, Door chair Jackie Nichols and David Stout, Bar setup Tony Cromer and Benny Counts, Bartender headed by Dee Dee Durham, Food by Margaret Cromer and Linda Fanning, Chinese Auction by Janice Prather and Linda Fanning, 50/50 on Friday by Ellie Sidenberg, Paula Malone and Don Renne, 50/50 Saturday by the Fletchers, O'Brien's, Novelene Powell, and Bruce Taylor. Our DJ's did an awesome job keeping the floor full. This year we had six past presidents working in some capacity, so this shows we have the club pride alive and working. You could tell by the attendance that our party guest loved the line dance lessons by Brenda Taylor and the extraordinary shag dance teaching talents of Jackie and Charlie. I hope you all enjoyed our Junior Shaggers Nick and Natalie Weaver. This will be Nick's last year of competition due to age. As President, I made an attempt to speak with everyone that attended the party by meeting and greeting during the registration process, giving out shooters at the Hospitality Room, visiting tables on Friday and Saturday nights, interacting at the pool party, and concluding by visiting different times at the breakfast buffet. All the effort for the party is worth it if you are truly interested in preserving our style of dancing. The Double Tree Hotel did an outstanding job in every capacity. Can't say enough about the hospitality and respect they showed Palmetto Shag Club.

Most of our club officers will be attending the Summer Workshop July 14th thru July 16th hosted by Lake Norman Shag Club. The event will be in Concord, NC and information can be found later in the Newsletter.

I hope you will make plans to attend our most recent planned outing on October 14, 2017, better known as Palmetto Shag Club's DJ Marathon. This party will give our interested Association of Beach Shag Club DJ's the opportunity to play for the club and earn needed money that will be donated to the American Cancer Society. Cancer can strike at any time and to anyone. We all know a family affected by this dreaded disease, so I hope you will support this endeavor.

One last reminder, PSC's membership year ends July 31, 2017, so you will have to reup by mail or on-line prior to the party or wait at the door to re-up. Our Re-up Party will be on August 12th party. Wristbands will be used to help us control the multiple doors at our new venue. Thanks in advance for considering PSC your home.

Let's go Shagging
